

THE FOOL HAS SAID IN HIS HEART « THERE IS NO GOD ! »

-- WHY I DON'T HAVE THE FAITH TO BE AN ATHEIST

If a team of astronauts would go to Mars and find a house there, with doors and windows, they would come back shouting, « This proves there is life on Mars, there is no way that a house would just ‘happen’. This has been done by intelligent life ! »

And yet, they see all the glory of God on this earth and in the universe and they can't tell there is a God behind it ! This is crazy !

It is revealed to everybody who will pay attention, and there are still some people who just think this happen by some Big Bang or something else. Everything is in just such perfect order in the universe, that you can go backward thousands of years and know exactly what happened in the celestial realm on a chosen day. Or know exactly where a planet is going to be years ahead, because it is so synchronously perfect. And yet, they say it randomly happened

All around us, we see living organisms that can reproduce and grow, and wonderfully made people who can think and do lots of things. The creation of God proves the existence of God.

If you would take all the wealth and all the great minds of this whole universe, for the sole purpose to produce, out of nothing, one single blade of grass that was alive and could grow and reproduce, mankind could not do it. They could make something that looks like grass, it may have the same texture and weight, it may look like it but if you plant it, but it will never grow ; the single little blade of grass, a weed out there, proves to anybody that is honest that there is a God. All mankind with all this technology and all his power could not produce a single blade of grass, a single flower, a single tree.

How can people look at the wonders of nature and just think it has evolved ? Look at the complexity of any living being, especially mankind, and it is beyond belief that people would not see the glory of God. Psalm 19 :1 : « The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament show His handiwork. »

You don't have to dig deep, it is not like an artesian well, it is just flowing forth. Every day when you see a sunrise or a sunset, when you see a bird fly, when you look at a simple little flower, the creation is just constantly declaring God.

One atheist had been overclimbing a hill over Los Angeles, one evening, looking at the sunset, and as the sun set, he noticed that lights began to come on in the city, street lights and all kinds of lights, thousands and thousands of lights, and he had this thought : « How much effort does it take to put all these thousands of lights down there ? Somebody has to light every one of them there ! » And he raised his gaze and looked up at the sky, and there were millions of stars, and the thought came to him ; « The same way that these lights in the city just did not « happen », Somebody had to make every one of the lights in the sky, they just did not happen. » The stars were declaring God to him.

I tell you, only fools, only people who harden themselves against the things of God miss this. Everyone on earth, every person that has ever been living, has had God's creation shout out to them.

There seems to be a growing sense in our society that atheism or agnosticism are the positions of the « enlightened », and that the belief in the God of the Bible is the position of the ignorant or backward. Psalm.14 Verse 1 says, “The fool has said in his heart, ‘There is no God.’” Right at the start, this psalm says it's man's foolishness that would have him to assert in his heart that there is no God. Not man's wisdom or learning. It's his foolishness. The fool is someone that lacks wisdom and knowledge in regards to truth.

Romans 1:20 : «so that they are without excuse. » Every person that ever breathed on that planet had the glory of God, the nature of God, revealed unto them, so that they are without excuse. Nobody will be able to stand before God and say : « I did not know ! » Now you can deny it, harden yourself against it and get to where you live in that fantasy world which denies everything that the heavens show you. It is your choice. What will you choose ?
